Surgeon Dentist.
 WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Menard, Texas, and vicinity, that he has permanently located in this city, and is now preparing his profession in the best and most substantial style of the art, and it would say to those who have ever seen a good dentist, that his work is such and will compare to that in beauty and durability with any in the State. I would also say to those who are afflicted with Decayed mouths, that I am prepared to fill them with the best of Gold or Silver. Also to remove tumors from the mouth or nostril. All operations warranted, and moderate charges. I have secured a license of my present city of Menard from Dr. Russell, for five years with the refusal of ten. The best of references can be given.

Home Affairs.

The General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church of the United States, met in Columbus, on Thursday last, May 15th. Dr. Beatty, of Steubenville, was chosen Moderator. Its session will last several days.

Beauregard asks an Armistice.
Cairo, May 15.—The steamer Gladiator from Pittsburg, was at the Landing.

Beauregard sent a flag of truce to General Halleck, asking an armistice for ten days. This was subsequently corroborated by deserters. It is said the matter was under consideration when the Gladiator left.

The steamer Desoto arrived from the fleet but brought no news.

Not a gun or a mortar has been fired by either side for two days.

The Confederates and Federals are busily engaged in repairing dangers and getting ready for the next encounter.

Military affairs at Pittsburg Landing remain unchanged.

Instructions; they only present the case in different aspects.

Judge—“That’s it exactly; six on the plaintiff’s aspects, and six on the defendant’s aspect, and a dead lock at that!”

Judge—“The jury is discharged. Sheriff, adjourn the court.”
